

Apprenticeships 2012: A Business Engagement Event

If you haven't been involved with apprenticeships recently, perhaps never before, you may be surprised!!

- Learn from businesses like yours who have experience of apprenticeships.
- Hear about new and existing financial incentives to support you with hiring apprentices.
- Speak to local training providers who can help you to hire and train your next apprentice.
- Meet some local apprentices who might just challenge your perceptions and who are currently benefiting businesses in your area.

Trafford 14 -19 Partnership in association with the National Apprenticeship Service and the Trafford Economic Alliance is supporting a chance for businesses to learn about the benefits, and overcome potential concerns regarding apprenticeships in 2012. So why not invest a couple of hours of your business' time and join us?

Speakers will include:

Sir Bill Moorcroft	-	Principal, Trafford College
John Myers	-	Employer Services Director, National Apprenticeship Service
Penny Copeland	-	Head of Training & Development, Carole Nash Ltd
Deborah Brownlee	-	Corporate Director CYPS, Trafford Council

The Event will be held at 3.30pm on Monday 6th February at the Aspire Restaurant, Trafford College, Manchester Road, Altrincham. WA14 5PQ.

Numbers are strictly limited, so to book a place for your business or for further information please contact Debbie Thompson, Economic Development Manager on 0161 912 4924 / 0161 912 4085 or email at debbie.thompson@trafford.gov.uk

